My timetable

Q1) Please explain my timetable! What do the colours mean?

A1.

My studies and communication

Q1) If I can't always attend, can I attend lessons online?

A1. No. The course is approved for classroom delivery only.

Q2) I am confused about something and need help. Who can I contact to get the best advice?

A2. The course leader: John.lapwood@beds.ac.uk and Languagecentre@beds.ac.uk are the two best contacts for advice. When emailing us, please tell us your name, your student number and your group number.

What happens next?

Q1) When do I need to start attending?

A1. The semester begins on Monday dd/mm , which is when this timetable begins. Therefore, we will expect to see you in class for the blue shaded sessions from the week beginning dd/mm.

Attendance will be closely monitored from the first week, which is week commencing dd/mm.

Q2) Can I do anything else to prepare?

A2. Why not visit the university before the start date and locate the rooms you will be studying in? Also, get into the habit of using the English Language as often as possible. You'll be expected to use it all the time when on campus at the university.
